

Adapted from: Top Prototype Testing Questions to Ask \(usertesting.com\) and UserResearch-Guide-By-Sarah-Doody \(harvard.edu\)

Preamble:

This is a usability test for a prototype of the Compass Dashboard. Compass is a web platform that will guide teachers in helping students achieve academic success using student-sourced data. Because it is a prototype, please note that there is limited functionality.

Biologic Questions

- 1) How would you self-identify
 - a) Age:
 - b) Gender:
 - c) Profession:
 - d) Relationship with students:
- 2) If any, are there challenges that you face with education or teaching?
- 3) What successful habits have helped you foster a better education?
- 4) What successful habits have helped you foster better relationships with your students?

User Testing Questions

- 1) What are your thoughts on the color palette and theme?
- 2) What is most appealing about this website?
- 3) What is least appealing about this website?
- 4) How do you feel about using the website?
- 5) If users had a magic wand, what would they change about the product?
- 6) What features would you like to see?
- 7) Is the navigation intuitive?
- 8) Any question I did not ask which you want to expand on?